COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

THURSDAY EVENING, Dec. 13.

The public proceedings in connection with the advent and departure, respectively, of the new and retiring Viceroys, in which mercantile interest, as represented by our Chamber of Commerce, have had a prominent place, have rather overshadowed other matters; but apart from this there has been little disposition, in view of the approaching holiday season, to extend the lines of business in any direction. A good demand for new Cotton, mainly local, was experienced towards the close of last week and the beginning of this, but it was not sustained, and the market relapsed into a quiet state. Following the more encouraging advices from the home markets, there has latterly been a return of activity in the Wheat and Linseed Markets; but the week's business in the aggregate has not been large. Exchange was weak and declining in sympathy with Silver to the close of last week; but a firmer feeling has since prevailed, and we are now on a level with last Thursday's quotations. A good deal has been done in Private Paper; but demands for bank media of remittance have been very slack. Government Paper has been weak and declining. Shares have been fairly active as to Mill and Press Scrip; but prices have, in many cases, favoured buyers. Freight have been firm, but with little accession of business, available tonnage being far from abundant in any position. There is no change to speak of in the Import Market, in which a moderate business has been done during the week at generally unaltered rates.

MONEY.—Although money is scarce on the other side of India, and the effect of this is felt to some extent here, there is nothing approaching stringency locally, and the Presidency Bank statement issued on Monday showed an increase in the Cash Balance of 3½ lakhs, while in the trade demand there had been a net falling off represented by 5½ lakhs. No change was made in the Bank's rates this afternoon, and the minimum therefore remains per annum.

EXCHANGE.—In sympathy with a further fall of 3-16d per oz. in the price of Silver, opened weak and declining on last mail-day, and 3-32d. below our rates of the previous evening was quoted for Bank Bills and Wire Transfer, and 1-32d. for 3 months' sight credits. The feeling continued quiet at the decline, and closed the same, with current rates quoted up to March, and 1-32d. lower for April and May. Some forward business was done at 1s. 4-10-32d. and 1s. 4-10-32d. for April-May delivery in 3 months' sight Credits, and in Bank Telegraphic at 1s. 4-10-32d. as far as June; but at the close the latter rate was not going later than March. Following the downward course of Silver, this market opened on Saturday at a further decline, Bank demand having been quoted at 1s. 4-9-32d. and wire transfer at 1s. 4-10-32d. and Credits at 1s. 4-9-32d. The rate for Private Paper afterwards receded 1-16d., and a few Bills came out for forward delivery at 1s. 4-10-32d., but scarcely any demand was felt for remittance. The market opened with a firmer feeling on Monday, and rates continuing to harden an advance was generally established, the tone at closing having been firm, with Credits at 1s. 4-9-32d. to February, 1s. 4-10-32d. for March and April, and 1s. 4-10-32d. for May. A considerable business transpired in 3 months' sight Credits, ready and forward, but demand for the bank media of remittance was almost absent. Next day a firmer feeling was noticeable on opening with rates quoted 1-32d. higher, and, supported by higher quotations from Calcutta, the market continued to harden, closing firm at some further advance, a fair amount of Merchants' Bills having come out during the day. Yesterday the tone was decidedly quiet with extremely little business passing either way, and with rates quite unchanged from Tuesday's level at closing. In advance of 1-16d. per oz. in Silver and the allotment of 30 lakhs of Council Bills at 1s. 4-5-16d., and 5 lakhs of Telegraphic at 1s. 4-10-32d., besides an extra 5 lakhs of Bills on Calcutta at 1s. 4-10-32d., caused this market to open firm this morning, and the feeling continued to the close, a fair business having been done in Merchants' Bills. Current rates for remittance are quoted to April and 1s. 4-5-16d., and 1s. 4-10-32d. for February-March, while 1s. 4-10-32d. is quoted for May delivery. The following are our closing rates:—

though in the case of some descriptions of Bleached Shirtings and Mulls we hear of lower prices having been accepted. The market for Local Goods has been steady, and rates are firmly maintained, though no improvement can be recorded. The off-take for the week of Imported Goods is estimated at 1887-3,300 packages; that of Local Goods at 2,900 bales.

YARNS.—The market for Imported Yarn keeps very quiet at our last quotations for transactions having transpired during the week. Telegrams from China report a decline of half a dollar per bale in No. 20s. Local Spinning, with sales for the week ending 12th Dec., 6,000 bales. Exchange has remained at 1/2d. level, and the fall of half a dollar in Yarn with diminished sales at Hongkong, has thoroughly disappointed speculators, who are now forcing sales at much lower prices than the circumstances seem to warrant.

We report a fall (only in the bazaar however) of 1/2d. in 20s. only, the market being otherwise quiet at the following official quotations. The sales for the week may be called 2,000 bales.—

IMPORTS OF PRICE-GOODS AND YARNS.—Particulars of the shipments of Goods and Yarns to India for the month of November have reached us through Reuter, and below we give our usual comparative statement relating to the same. The shipments of Plain Cottons to Bombay, it will be noticed, were heavier last month by some four million yards than they were in October, and more than double the quantity shipped in November last year, the excess this year being over 34 million yards. Of Coloured Cottons, Printed Cottons, and Twist a falling off, compared with October's shipments, is shown; but as against November 1887 there was an increase most marked in Printed Cottons. Taking the eleven months of the present year compared with last, we find a material increase in every item this year excepting Coloured Cottons, which show a slight falling off, the excess in Grey Cottons being 60 million yards, in Printed Cottons 2½ million yards, and in Twist over 3½ million lbs.

Metals.—Copper has been in better demand and prices have advanced 3 annas to Rs. 1 per cent in a firm market. A moderate business is reported. Yellow Metal has also been taken to a moderate extent, but an advance of 3 annas per cent. has been established, and this market also closed firm. Iron has been dealt in to a small extent, but the market is steady at our last quotations.

COALS.—As firm, sales have been reported during the week of Rowell's Duffry Cardiff, January-February shipment, at Rs. 23½ per ton; and on the Bunder at Rs. 26½ per ton. Since then prices have advanced half a rupee per ton.

EXPORTS.
COTTON remained steady on last mail-day, and demand, chiefly from local spinners, having become rather active, a considerable business in ready new Oomra descriptions was done. The tone of the market continued steady to the end of the week, but enquiry fell off and transactions were on a moderate scale. On Monday the feeling became firm in presence of a renewed demand, and a good deal was done in ready new Bengals and Oomra kinds on about the same basis as the previous day. Thereafter the market became quiet, and continued so while the business transacted was in a small compass. More than half the business reported during the past week has been in new Jalgum and Dhulia, which have been arriving freely at Rs. 205-16 and Rs. 203-4, according to quality, the other transactions being Oomra descriptions having been in Akola, at Rs. 204½; Karanja, at Rs. 202-32; Khangaum, at Rs. 219; and Chalisgaum, at Rs. 202 per candy. Bengals have been taken to a fair extent, and at Rs. 194, according to quality; and a little Hinganghat has changed hands at Rs. 231. Several parcels of old Wadhwan have also found buyers at Rs. 189-96 per candy.

There has not been much forward business, but some contracts have been reported in Branch for January delivery at Rs. 239; and in Bhowanagar for April-May at Rs. 202 per candy. The market closed steady this evening with quotations generally Rs. 1 to Rs. 2 below our rates by last mail.

The arrivals of new Cotton during the week have been 25,000 bales against about 11,000 bales received at the same time last season, and as will be seen below, the excess in receipts of new Cotton this year compared with last has now reached 50,340 bales.

According to the Chamber's telegraphic weather and crop reports made known at the beginning of the week, the weather all over the Cotton area was reasonable, no further rain having fallen in any part, and favourable to the harvesting of the crop. Cotton-picking was pretty general in the Bengal and Oomrawuttee circles, the crop estimate being stated to be very favourable in the Baraset District; and the picking of the Branch crop had commenced, arrivals being expected early. The news was favourable from all districts of the Dhollera circle, and at Wadhwan the crop was reported to be excellent; while in the Dharwar district of Hubli the plants were in flower, and continued to show more improvement. The report issued to-day confirms the previous favourable telegrams, and states that picking had become general in the Branch circle.

The following are to-day's quotations for full pressed cotton with the equivalents in Sterling, cost and freight to Liverpool, via Canal, without commission, viz:—

THE PATNA CASE.

"They Murder the Fatherless and say the Lord of pages of very angry and very excited denunciations which form the excuse for a "Special be given into the custody of her mother. Miss Abraham appealed to have the case transferred to the High Court; two judges refused to interfere with the decision of the District Judge. Thereupon Mr. Dyer was communicated with.

"At eleven o'clock that night Mr. Dyer received at Bombay a telegram from Miss Abraham containing particulars of the denouement of that had been perpetrated at the same hour at Patna, the subject of a Christian mission to be an official acting in the name of a Christian Queen.

"What was to be done? It was impossible that any man could acquiesce in such a denouement.

The clock was striking the midnight hour as Mr. Dyer was engaged in his study. He immediately despatched the following urgent telegram to Lord Dufferin, who was still in power as Viceroy—

Quinn, Collector at Puna, has illegally and by force consigned to a life of infamy a girl named Luckmin, appeal to you to immediately interfere to save the child from further outrage. She is a Christian. I am

AN INDIAN DIVORCE CASE.

In the Probate, Divorce, and Admiralty Division before Mr. Justice Butt, on the 21st ult., the case of Barrows v. Barrows and Read was heard.

In this case William Barrows, regimental sergeant-major in the 12th Lancers, petitioned for the dissolution of his marriage with Margaret B. Barrows, whose maiden name was Cole, on the ground of her adultery with Hugh Read, a private in the same regiment. The respondent denied the charge against her, and further pleaded that in 1883 the petitioner committed adultery with her step-sister, an accusation which the petitioner denied. The co-respondent did not plead.

Mr. Searle appeared for the petitioner; Mr. Ogilvie for the respondent.

The petitioner and the respondent were married at Bolarum, in the Presidency of Madras, on the 11th of October, 1881, and they cohabited till the 11th of June in the present year, there being two children of the marriage. The adultery charged against the respondent and the co-respondent was alleged to have occurred at Colchester Barracks, where the 12th Lancers had been for some time quartered. The co-respondent was batman, or servant, to the petitioner, and evidence was given by two young women who were in the service of the petitioner, and the respondent which, if believed, could leave no doubt of the existence of immoral relations between Mrs. Barrows and the co-respondent in the spring of the present year. Alice Barrows, sister of the petitioner, also gave evidence incriminating Mrs. Barrows, whose conduct she brought to the petitioner's knowledge on the 11th of June, when he separated from his wife and instituted proceedings in this Court. Mr. Mark, armourer-sergeant of the regiment, swore that on the 16th of the same month he met Mrs. Barrows, who asked him what she ought to do about the divorce proceedings. He replied that she had better go to some solicitor, on which she said, "I shall not go into Court. He can get a divorce as soon as he likes. I have seen Read and he has promised to marry me. He does not know whether it would be better to take his discharge, as he has only four months to put in, or to re-engage in a regiment going to India." On this Mr. Mark observed, "Well, according to that you must be guilty." She replied, "Yes; I am guilty." A number of letters written by the respondent to her husband since the 11th of June last were put in evidence. In them, while denying adultery, she implored his forgiveness and besought him to take her back; but they contained no counter charge of adultery against him. There was also in evidence a letter dated the 20th of last month, and addressed to the co-respondent. It was not delivered to Read, the person to whom she entrusted it for delivery, having handed it over to the petitioner. It was in these terms:—My dear Hugh, "It is just coming to my hearing that Percy has told Mr. B. I sent a letter to you before you went into hospital. Will you darling if asked about it say it was your letter from your sister you gave me to read on Saturday morning on the 9th June and I returned to you on the 11th. I dare not write to you, as you see Mark and Slagg are on the watch. And you say this, as I am going to tell Mr. Jones, the solicitor, about the letter. Stick to me, my Hugh. I wish I could see you. Fear all my letters up, please. Good-bye. I go back to London on Saturday. With love, yours, &c. Maggie." The petitioner denied that there was a shadow of truth in the counter charge of adultery against him. The respondent went into the box and swore that the evidence of the petitioner's letter was false, and she also swore positively that she never had been guilty of adultery with Read.

She further denied ever having called him "darling." She asked how she came to style him "my Hugh" in her letter, she replied that she had not known that the term was in the document. She further swore that her husband and her step-sister committed adultery in 1883, when all three were in India, but she admitted, in answer to the learned Judge, that after the occurrence she remained on speaking terms with her step-sister. Her counsel read a letter of hers written in June last to somebody, in which she mentioned the countercharge; but the learned Judge, while allowing to be read, said that it was not evidence in the case, and that, even if it were, it would be of no importance, as it was written after the commencement of the suit. Asked whether she had travelled up to the town to attend the hearing in the same train with the co-respondent, she denied it; and, asked whether she did not, as she was speaking, see him in Court, she replied that she did not. He was then pointed out to her standing in uniform at the back of the Court, and she said, "I see him now." The co-respondent was called as her witness, and also positively denied the charge made by the husband, and also that the respondent had ever, when speaking of him, called him "darling." On the 20th of October, he denied that he had ever written him any letters before that one; but he admitted that he received when in hospital the letter referred to by her as one he was to read to his sister. Asked to produce it, he said that he had not got it; and, asked what he had done with it, he replied that he did not know. Asked by the petitioner's counsel why he had not answered the petition, he replied, "I was not ordered to do so." The learned Judge reminded him that he had received a polite invitation in the form of a citation, to which reminder he answered that he had not means. On this his own counsel said, "Why don't you defend the case?" He replied, "That is what I am going to do now, if I can." He added that he attended on the subpoena of the respondent's solicitor.

Mr. Justice Butt, in giving judgment, observed that four witnesses had given evidence on behalf of the petitioner, and that their evidence was true and correct, and that the evidence of the respondent, which was made by the husband was established beyond doubt. There was no reason to disbelieve them, except the contradiction of the respondent and the co-respondent in the witness-box, and that the charge against her husband, in the evidence of the respondent, was said of it in the face of her own letter of the 20th of October? Nothing, he should think, but that it was not true. He did not believe her testimony in the witness box, and, as to the charge against her husband, it depended solely on her evidence. There was no corroboration whatever of her evidence respecting it. Her husband positively denied it, and she herself did not pretend that she had lived on good terms with him down to the time when she discovered her immoral relations with Read. The co-respondent had given evidence as her witness to deny the charge in the husband's petition; but he had had no answer to that petition, and as he repudiated the charge, when in the witness-box, he contradicted a written statement of the respondent. She wrote to him to tear her letters up, and he, in the witness-box, stated that she had addressed no letter to him. There must be a decree nisi with costs against the co-respondent, and the petitioner would have the custody of the children of the marriage.

THE NEW TURKISH PRESS REGULATIONS.

The new director and censor of the press at Constantinople, Ahmed Arifi Effendi, has sent out to all editors in the Turkish capital the following articles, among others for their guidance:—

Article 3.—Do not publish scientific or literary articles too long for completion in a single issue. Avoid the notice "to be continued," which causes an uncomfortable tension of the mind.

Article 4.—Avoid blank spaces and suggestive dots in the body of an article. They tend to raise suppositions and disturb the tranquillity of the reader's mind, as was lately seen in the case of the Lancet Herald.

Article 5.—Avoid personalities. If anybody comes and tells you that a Governor or a Deputy-Governor has been guilty of embezzlement, maladministration, or any other blameworthy conduct, then charge the charge as not proved, and say nothing about it.

Article 6.—You are forbidden to publish the petitions in which individuals or associations complain of acts of misgovernment and call the Sultan's attention to them.

Article 7.—You are absolutely forbidden to publish a word about attempts on the lives of foreign Sovereigns, or acts of sedition in foreign countries, for it is not good that such things should be made known to our loyal and peaceable populations.

Article 8.—You must not mention these regulations in the columns of your journal, because they might provoke criticisms, or draw unpleasant observations from ill-conditioned minds.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you broken in you rest by a sick child, suffering with the pain of teething, go at once to a chemist and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. It will relieve the poor sufferer immediately. It is perfectly harmless and pleasant to the taste. It produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes "as bright as a button." It soothes the child, it softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for dysentery and diarrhoea, whether arising from teething or other causes. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup is sold by Medicine Dealers everywhere at 1/6d. per bottle. Wholesale by The Anglo-American Drug Company, Limited, 38, Farringdon-road, London.

IN PRESENTING the Fourteenth Illustrated Christmas Number of our Trade Circular, THE PEARL, we have the honour to solicit from our Constituents a continuance of their favours.

Its contents, we trust, will be of use to our friends at a distance who cannot favour us with a personal visit, and who at this season of the year desire to obtain useful and artistic objects for gifts.

We have given greater prominence to Diamond Ornaments than usual, which will, at once, command the attention of all observers of fashion, while Gold and Silver Jewellery have also received our diligent attention. We believe that nothing of taste and suitable to the requirements of our Christmas and New Year's Trade has escaped us. Every object possessing merit which we have seen we have obtained and placed in stock; in fact, we have now the largest and choicest collection of Art Diamond Work, and Gold and Silver Ornaments ever offered for sale.

As to prices—We desire to assure those who have not yet favoured us with any orders, of our ability to meet the present competition. We assert that if quality be taken into consideration our prices are lower than any other house, and, that our Customers have a distinct advantage in dealing with us, as the quality of all our goods is rigidly upheld. We have a reputation of Eighty Years to maintain, and we have no intention to mar our eminently successful career by the introduction of inferior goods. Still it will be observed that the moderate prices of some of the articles illustrated in The Pearl places them within the reach of a very wide circle.

We shall be glad to forward a copy to any address on application and to send goods on approval, if desired.

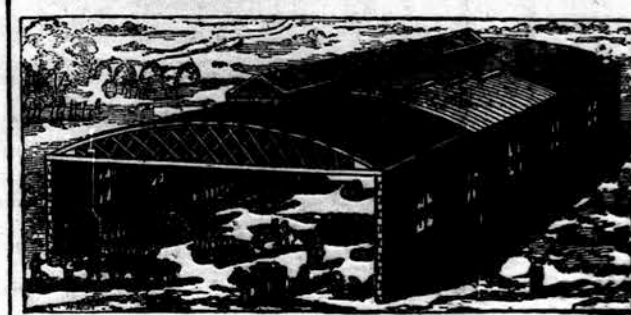

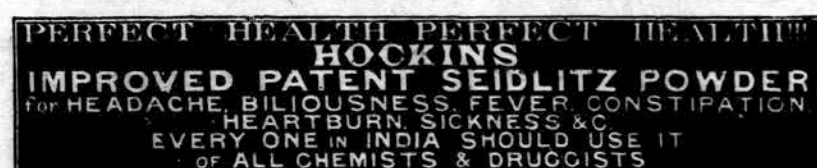

We would respectfully ask that Christmas Orders should be sent to us at as early a date as possible.

Every order with which we are favoured will receive our own personal attention.
